

1820 Greene County, Pennsylvania Census of Enslaved Individuals and Free Persons of Color

1820 is the only Federal Census in Greene County that was segregated by color. Data for all Free Heads of Household and the names of Slave owners and the numbers and ages of the people they enslaved are separated from the general population.

In this transcription:

“Free Head of Household” is the named Free Person of Color with data about the household listed beneath.

FPOC = Free Person of Color

White Heads of Household with those Enslaved Individuals and Free Persons of Color living in the white households are a separate census listing than those white family members of the white heads.

Each Township is listed with the heads of household within each township entered in the order they were first entered in the original census pages.
